

THE MONDAY

REPORT

REGISTRATION BEGINS THIS WEEK

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION
202 SKYLAND BLVD
TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA 35405

February 13, 1984

Lucy Kubiszyn, Editor

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Record Series. Campus Newspaper
File: EG 1-12-5
9-28-95

Registration for Spring at Shelton will begin Wednesday, February 15, and continue through March 7. Now is the time to sign up for classes in order to be assured of the classes and hours you need.

CAST FOR CARMEN ANNOUNCED

Tresa Hardin and Jay Roberts have been cast as Carmen and Don Jose in Shelton State music department's production of "Carmen," scheduled for May 10-12 in the Junior College auditorium. Other characters in the production include: Brain Jones, Escamillo; Robbie Jackson, Micaela; Renee Raines, Casquita; Teresa Hill, Mercedes; Tom Stephens, Zuniga; Ronnie Miles, El Dancairo; Bud Johnson, Mamuelita; and Joel Hester, narrator.

JACEETTES OFFER SCHOLARSHIP

Applications for a one year scholarship are presently available in the office of the dean of instruction, Dr. Arthur Howington. This scholarship will be awarded by the Tuscaloosa Jayceettes and is open to any adult female who is interested in continuing her education and who is in need of assistance. All applications should be returned by February 27.

ALL ABOUT EVE

Eve Engle Conaway, former audio-visual coordinator for Shelton State, has been appointed director of the library at Rutledge College in Fayetteville, North Carolina. Eve's husband, Andy, a lieutenant in the U.S. Army stationed at Ft. Bragg in Fayetteville, was awarded several medals recently. All were for service in Granada except for one which was for administering CPR last spring to a ROTC student at the University.

THE SHELTON SINGERS HAVE RESCHEDULED THEIR CONCERT FOR THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 23, AT 11 A.M. IN THE AUDITORIUM.

FEBRUARY 27 IS THE LAST DAY OF CLASSES FOR THE WINTER QUARTER. FINAL EXAMS ARE SCHEDULED FOR FEBRUARY 28, 29, AND MARCH 1.

SSAA TO OFFER SCHOLARSHIP

The Shelton State Alumni Association is offering a full tuition scholarship to Shelton State Community College for the 1983-84 school year. The scholarship will be judged on grades and need. A 3.0 QPA (B average) is recommended. All applications must be returned by March 9. For more information or to pick up an application, contact Lucy Kubiszyn at the Junior College Division.

GIRLS SKYROCKET TO SUCCESS

Shelton State has scheduled a math and science conference, "Skyrocket to Success," scheduled for girls, grades 6-9, to be held Saturday, May 5, in the Junior College auditorium. The conference will be cosponsored by the American Association of University Women, Junior League of Tuscaloosa, and the University of Alabama. Pre-registration of $3 is necessary and all registration must be in by April 14.

BETSY BARRETT TO PRESENT PROGRAM AT SHELTON

Tuscaloosa piano instructor, Betsy Barrett, will be at Shelton State on Wednesday, February 15, at 11 a.m. in the music room. In addition to teaching, Barrett has composed and published several musical pieces. She will play some of her songs in addition to speaking on "Life as a Pianist, Piano Instructor and Composer." She has served as president of the Tuscaloosa Music Teachers Association and the Alabama Music Teachers Association. The faculty, staff, and students at the college are encouraged to attend.

HAVE A HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY

BEAUTY WALK JUDGES

Shelton faculty and administrators will serve as judges for several beauty walks this month. Loretta Kyles, Dennis Sampson, and Louis Skipper will judge the prettiest girls at Warrior Academy on Saturday, February 18. On February 24, Brenda Ryan, Sharon Deck, Linda Mason, Wynora Freeman, Humphrey Lee, Joyce Jolly, Jim Jolly will travel to Greensboro West to judge the schools competition. Lucy and Jack Kubiszyn helped judge the Miss Brewer State competition in Fayette this past week-end.

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

The Eighth Annual Fire Department Officers' Conference will be held February 20-23 at the Alabama State Fire College. The four day conference will be designed to deal with problems generally encountered by fire officers. According to Bob Hagler, director of the Fire College, the conference will also be of interest and benefit to others having fire incident responsibilities.

UA TO OFFER JUNIOR COLLEGE HONORS SCHOLARSHIP

There is still time to apply for the University of Alabama Junior College Honors Scholarship offered yearly. This scholarship is based entirely on academic achievements regardless of the student's financial need. To be considered, the student must have applied for admission to the University of Alabama for the 1984-85 year. Ten scholarships will be awarded and each scholarship is $1,150 per year renewable for two years provided the students maintains a "B" average.

Applications must be received by March 21, 1984. For more information or to obtain an application, contact Lorine Lowe.

The Shelton State lady Buccaneer softball team begins preparation for their 1984 season, according to coach Steve King. "This team can compete for higher honors than the state and regional championship," King says. "We have six returning letter-winners in addition to four talented transfers and six freshmen."

Shelton will host the First Annual Lady Buccaneer Classic on April 13-14 at Bowers Park. This will be in addition to the AJCCA tournament that will decide the state's entry in the national tournament in May.

Both King and assistant coach Susan Graves hope faculty, staff and students will turn out for the games. The Buccaneers are scheduled for more night games this year. The first game of the 1984 season will be March 5 against Tawamba Mississippi Junior College at Bowers in Tuscaloosa.

MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP AUDITIONS SCHEDULED

Auditions for the Performing Arts' Scholarships at Shelton State will be held April 7 and May 19 from 1-3 p.m. in the music room of the Junior College. Scholarships are available in piano, voice, choir, and jazz band. Students are asked to prepare the following for their auditions: piano, two contrasting piano solos; voice, two contrasting songs from standard literature; choir, one solo song; jazz band, one solo song.

Students auditioning for choir and jazz scholarships will be asked to sight read. An accompanist will be provided upon request. All applications must be filled out and returned two weeks prior to auditions. For more information or to obtain an application, contact Syble Coats at the Junior College.

TECHNICAL TALK

LPN News: Mrs. Betty Bibby's LPN class has one more week in the clinical area. Their graduation will be Wednesday, February 29, at the Junior College auditorium. Shelton faculty and administration offer congratulations to all the new nurses. Many of the LPN students will attend a workshop on spinal cord injury on Wednesday, February 22, at the Ramada Inn. Drs. Moses Jones and William Buckley will be featured at the meeting.

The weekend LPN class visited the physical therapy department at Druid City Hospital recently. This class also plans to entertain residents of Estes Glen Haven Nursing Home with a Valentine's Day party on Thursday, February 14. Refreshments, games and door prizes will be included. Approximately 60 residents are expected to attend.
